

Everyone is invited to the screening of a new WWII documentary that is both unique and moving!

The Girl Who Wore Freedom is a unique feature-length documentary containing the untold stories of the French citizens of Normandy, France. These are the men and women who lived through the WWII German occupation, the D-Day Invasion, and the liberation by Allied Forces.

This movie goes beyond just the facts about those historic times. It records, in their own words, the undying gratefulness of the French people for the sacrifices of our GIs and of America.

For a preview, please view the 4 minute movie trailer at www.normandystories.com
